

Connecting a Davis Vantage Pro 2 or Vue to Weather Underground Using a Weatherlink IP Device

1	Complete installation of your weather station. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Davis Support installation diagrams and instructions
2	Connect the Weatherlink IP device to the Vantage Vue or Vantage Pro 2 console.
3	Connect the Weatherlink IP to the Internet (plug it in to your router). <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Installation diagram for Vantage Pro 2.• Installation diagram for Vantage Vue.
4	Create a free Weatherlink account at www.weatherlink.com.
5	Click the Add Devices button  at the top right corner of the Weatherlink website.
6	On the device menu, click the Install button  in the WeatherlinkIP section.
7	Enter your Station Name. Select the weather station Model. Identify your Station Usage. Enter your Device ID. Enter your device Key. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Both the Device ID (DID) and Key are found on the sticker attached to the Weatherlink IP device.
8	Confirm your station is communication with the Weatherlink website. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Verify data appears on the website.• Helpful Tip: If no data appears, power cycle the display console after connecting the Weatherlink IP device.

Connecting a Davis Vantage Pro 2 or Vue to Weather Underground Using a Weatherlink IP Device

9	Create a free account on the Weather Underground website: www.wunderground.com .
10	Click Sensor Network on the Weather Underground home page.
11	Select Connect a Weather Station in the drop-down menu.
12	Click Add a New PWS (personal weather station).  <ul style="list-style-type: none">• If there are other weather stations connected already, you may have to scroll to the bottom of the page to locate the Add a New PWS button.
13	Identify your weather station's location using the map and click Verify Location .
14	Enter required information and click Submit. If done correctly, this will generate a Weather Station ID and a Station Key . Write down both the Station ID and Station Key from Weather Underground.
15	Return to the Weatherlink website and click the Share & Uploads button.

Connecting a Davis Vantage Pro 2 or Vue to Weather Underground Using a Weatherlink IP Device

16	Click the Upload button  and enter the weather station information from Weather Underground.
17	Click Add Upload  .
18	Select Weather Underground from the drop-down list.
19	Enter the necessary information and click Upload .
20	Navigate back to the Weather Underground website to verify that your Davis station is communicating with Weather Underground.  The screenshot shows the Weather Underground interface for a station named 'Thornewood North'. It includes a station ID of 'KILCHAMP66', a station key, and the location 'Champaign, IL, US'. A weather sticker is visible in the bottom right corner, showing a sun icon, a temperature of 41.8 °F, and the condition 'Clear'. A red box highlights the weather sticker.

Connecting a Davis Vantage Pro 2 or Vue to Weather Underground Using a Weatherlink IP Device